TEMPORARY CUSTODY RECEIPT

Received by Division of: _____ Date: _____

Peabody Museum representative (name/title): _____

Forwarded to curatorial unit: _____

The objects listed on the back of this form are left in the temporary custody of the Museum as a favor to the owner, and on the initiative of the owner. Any opinion offered to the owner regarding the objects is for personal information and it may not be used in connection with any commercial transaction.

Museum personnel cannot make statements regarding the monetary value of an object, nor are they or the Museum liable for statements concerning the authenticity or identity of the object.

The Museum will give the objects left in its custody the same care provided similar objects of its own, but it assumes no additional responsibilities or liabilities in regard to such objects. Insurance for objects left in custody will be carried by the owner. This receipt shall constitute a release and waiver of the Peabody Museum, its employees, officers, and agents from any liability in connection with the objects while in temporary custody or in transit, except for clearly negligent conduct.

It is the responsibility of the owner to notify the Museum of any change of address while objects are in temporary custody. Any objects not claimed within 90 days of the expiration of this agreement may be disposed of at the discretion of the Museum.

I agree to the above terms and conditions.
